Dud-dee Gosh its been great knowing you this year. Have had some great times in biology and some even better ones in D.C.
Youre getting so skinny that the time is I see ya next year youll be so skinny that youll have shriveled up and blow-n away.
always stay sweet and youll have those wrapped around you finger Luv ya always Susan

Pride,
It's been a fun year and I can't believe it's over. I can't beliuve we'll be juniors neyt year either. I've enjoyed having English with you this year. Mrs.
Ackerman is really something isn't she!
Have fun this summer

THE BROOKLET

1971

BROOKE HILL SCHOOL, BIRMINGHAM, ALABAMA

From my obscurity came forth a light and illuminated my path.

Kahlil Gibran

THE BROOKE HILL GIRL OF 1970

Brooke Hill is an ideal universe within itself. Its greatest resource is the unlimited opportunity for one to involve herself in every aspect of life. Great insight about oneself may be gained through daily contact with the enthusiams of each individual at Brooke Hill, not only in classes, but also in its variety of extracurricular activities. Each day at Brooke Hill should be an attempt to involve oneself with another person or a new concept, and, in so doing, to build a bridge which will become a rewarding memory in retrospect. Only through involvement can one make a world her own.

Love,

Liz

ROBERT H. WOODROW, Jr.

President, Board of Trustees

To the 1971 Senior Class

Your time at Brooke Hill is drawing to a close, and you will soon be faced with a major change in your lives. Accept the challenge of change as generations before you have done. Accept the good. Reject the mediocre. Look to the future, but don't ignore the past. Strive to be well-balanced individuals, displaying the potential we know you have. Assume your rightful place in society, and our sincere best wishes go with you.

SENIORS

I had always a most earnest desire to know how to distinguish the true from the false, in order that I might be able to discriminate the right path in life, and proceed in it with confidence.

DEDICATION

MISS JOY BOX

She looks upon life with a never ceasing fascination and a constant marvel at the miracle of mankind. To her, English is not merely a pedantic lesson in grammar and semantics; it is the realized expression of man's noblest thoughts and the evidence of his ever continual search for knowledge. She speaks of literature with an obvious and contagious love, and she delights us constantly with her abounding enthusiasm. She often says that the day has not enough hours to please her, for there are so many subjects to explore, so many ideas to discover, and so much life to live; all of which she unselfishly wishes to share with her students. But perhaps what we love most about her is that she has made literature an adventure in wonder; and because she has shown us that she cares, we, in turn, have made her our friend. It is with gratitude and love that we, the Seniors of 1971, dedicate our annual to Joy Box.

Pride,

This year has really been fun for me. Thanks for all the help you've given me. I hope maybe next year that we can have more classes together.

Good Luck always

Melinda

Pride,

MRS. Ackermann would love that word

I have really enjoyed having some of my classes with you this year. Your kind and understanding and cheerfulness have helped me get out of some depressions this year. Our talks about horses have been fun. I hope you have a good time with your new horses this summer, but be careful (WATCH OUT FOR THOSE LIMBS)

Love,

Joanne
